II. STATUS OF MOU

a. This MoU does not mean the Parties are exclusive partners. It is not a promise to give money, a legal agreement, or a document that gives rights to anyone else.

b. The Parties will talk and agree on what to do under this MoU. They can review it if one Party asks.

c. Any projects, training, or exchanges will need another MoU signed by both Parties.

d. If something is not covered in this MoU or if problems happen, both Parties promise not to act alone. They will talk and agree on a solution together.

III. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This MoU aims to build research cooperation and academic collaboration and to promote good understanding between the Parties. The specific activities under this MoU include:

a. Working together on research, lectures, seminars, and conferences for faculty and students.

b. Sharing knowledge and expertise of faculty, staff, and researchers.

c. Working together to share research results.

d. Joining international conferences for research and academic activities organized by both Parties.

IV. DURATION OF THE AGREEMENT

A. CHANGES TO THIS MoU
Either Party can ask to change this MoU. Any changes will only happen if both Parties agree and put the changes in writing. The changes will take effect once both Parties sign them.

B. ENDING THIS MoU
Either Party can end this MoU without giving a reason. They must give written notice six (6) months before ending it.

C. APPLICABLE LAWS
The Parties will follow the laws of their countries when doing activities under this MoU. Both Parties will consult and agree on important decisions.

1. Neither Party will do anything that breaks the laws or rules of the Philippines or India.
2. If any issues come up, the rules about which laws apply will be used to decide how to resolve them.

D. SOLVING DISAGREEMENTS
If there are any disagreements about how this MoU is applied, understood, or carried out, both Parties will try their best to talk and resolve the issues.

E. COMPLETE AGREEMENT
This MoU is the full agreement between the Parties. It replaces any earlier discussions or agreements, whether written or spoken.

F. CONFIDENTIALITY
The Parties will respect each other's confidentiality rules. They can share information about their partnership but must not share private or sensitive information unless allowed. Each Party must clearly say if the information is confidential.

G. GOVERNMENT IMMUNITY
The governments of the Parties are not responsible for any problems with this MoU. By signing this MoU, the governing bodies do not give up their legal protections or defenses.

H. NO RIGHTS FOR OTHERS
This MoU does not give any rights to other people or organizations. It is only meant to help the Parties understand and carry out their responsibilities.

I. RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGES
a. JMCFI & BC will take responsibility if KU, its staff, or students face any claims, costs, or problems caused by JMCFI & BC's mistakes or negligence during this Agreement. JMCFI & BC will also pay for legal fees if needed.

b. KU will take responsibility if JMCFI & BC, its staff, or students face any claims, costs, or problems caused by KU's mistakes or negligence during this Agreement. KU will also pay for legal fees if needed.

J. ORIGINAL COPIES
This MoU is written in English. Translations into other languages are not considered original and will not create responsibilities or benefits for either Party. Two copies will be signed, and each Party will keep one.

K. SIGNATURES
The Parties, through their authorized representatives, have signed this MoU. They confirm they have read, understood, and agreed to its terms. This MoU becomes effective on the date of the last signature.
