Objective of Program:

1. Environmental Awareness and Conservation
2. To Develop Community Engagement
3. Promotion of Sustainable Practices

Details of Program:

The Corporate Training and Consultancy Division (CTCD) of Kalinga University took an initiative to promote environmental sustainability and community engagement by organizing a Tree Plantation Day. The event aimed to bring together trainees, staff members from the Police Training School, Mana Camp, Raipur, Chhattisgarh, and esteemed dignitaries to contribute to a greener and healthier environment.

The event was graced by the presence of Mr. Sanjay Sharma, AIG Traffic Joint Commissioner & Chairman of the Interdepartmental Lead Agency for Road Safety in Chhattisgarh, who served as the Chief Guest. Dr. I.R Khan, Superintendent of Police Head at Police Training School, Mana, Raipur, Chhattisgarh, was the Guest of Honour. Their participation and support added significance to the event and highlighted the collaboration between academia, law enforcement, and community stakeholders.

The Tree Plantation Day commenced with an inaugural ceremony where the Chief Guest, Guest of Honour, and other dignitaries from Kalinga University gathered at the Kalinga Auditorium. The program began with a warm welcome and introduction of the attendees. This was followed by insightful speeches by the Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour, highlighting the importance of environmental conservation, community participation, and the role of institutions in promoting sustainable practices.

After the speeches, a symbolic tree planting session took place at Kalinga Sports Complex, where the dignitaries, along with the participants, planted a variety of trees indigenous to the region. This act not only emphasized the significance of green initiatives but also fostered a sense of unity and collaboration among the attendees.

Program Outcome:

1. Successful Event: The Tree Plantation Day organized by CTCD at Kalinga University was a resounding success.
2. Dignitaries' Presence: Esteemed guests, including Mr. Sanjay Sharma (AIG Traffic Joint Commissioner & Chairman Interdepartmental Lead Agency for Road Safety, Chhattisgarh) and Dr. I.R Khan (Superintendent of Police, Police Training School, Mana, Raipur), graced the occasion.
3. Collaborative Effort: The event brought together members of the police training school, staff, and trainees, fostering a sense of collaboration and community engagement.
4. Chief Guest Engagement: Mr. Sanjay Sharma, AIG Traffic Joint Commissioner, actively participated in the tree plantation activity, emphasizing the importance of environmental conservation.

5. Guest of Honour Involvement: Dr. I.R Khan, SP Head, Police Training School, also contributed to the event by planting trees, underscoring the commitment of law enforcement to sustainable practices.
6. Educational Significance: The event served as an educational platform, raising awareness about the significance of tree planting in maintaining a healthy environment.
7. Green Initiative: The tree plantation took place at the Kalinga Sports Complex, reinforcing the university's commitment to green initiatives and sustainable practices.
8. Inspiring Example: The presence of distinguished dignitaries, along with the active involvement of university personnel, set an inspiring example of community collaboration for a greener future.
9. Symbolic Impact: The planted trees symbolize a lasting commitment to environmental consciousness and a reminder of the shared responsibility towards the planet's well-being.
